

PROFILE

The Offord Centre is a multi-disciplinary research institute focused on studying ways to improve the lives, health & development of children.

PEOPLE

The Offord Centre has 22 research faculty, over 50 research staff, 6 postdoctoral fellows & 13 PhD students.

8 Offord researchers hold university, Ontario, CIHR or Canada Research Chairs.

PARTNERSHIPS

Offord Centre studies have partnered with:

- international health organisations (UNESCO, WHO)
- academic institutions & organisations (Universities of Western, Toronto, Manitoba, B.C., Queens University, CHEO)
- provincial governments (MCYS, EDU, MOHLTC)
- clinical services (Kinark, McMaster Child & Youth Mental Health Program)
- Ontario District School Boards (Hamilton, Halton, Niagara, York & Durham)

LARGE-SCALE RESEARCH PROJECTS

The Offord Centre has a number of large-scale projects funded by the federal & provincial governments:

- Early Development Instrument
- Pathways in Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Preventing Violence across the Lifespan
- 2014 Ontario Child Health Study
- Nurse Family Partnership Curriculum Study

Three of these include multi-institutional and/or international consortia.

Etude sur la santé des jeunes Ontariens 2014

AREAS OF FOCUS

Researchers at the Offord Centre work in one of five areas:

